Richard Mackey - Security and Compliance Guru from SystemExperts - Highlights Best Practices for Addressing Complex Compliance Challenges at the Information Security Decisions Conference

Chicago, IL - October 21, 2009 – SystemExperts (www.systemexperts.com), a premier provider of IT compliance and information security consulting services, today announced that Richard Mackey, Vice President of Consulting with SystemExperts and veteran author, will speak at the Information Security Decisions Conference being held October 21-22 at the Hyatt Regency McCormick Place in Chicago, Illinois.

Mackey will present two sessions on Thursday, October 22, 2009:

- How to Evolve Your Compliance Program As Technologies and Mandates Change
- New Regulations on the Rise - What You Need to Know

“Technology and compliance mandates are constantly evolving. It is best to consider a life cycle approach in designing and implementing your compliance program. Periodic review of the requirements and implementation options is an integral part of the compliance program itself,” said Mackey.

Mackey is regarded as one of the industry's foremost authorities on compliance, security and distributed computing infrastructure. He has helped many organizations, from online retailers and application service providers to major manufactures and leading Wall Street financial services firms, assess and improve their security and compliance programs. For over two decades he has advised leading organizations on overall security architecture, enterprise wide authentication, and intrusion detection and analysis.

About Information Security Decisions:

Information Security Decisions is an educational conference designed specifically to address the needs, concerns and pain points for IT and security professionals. Delivered over two days, Information Security Decisions offers multiple tracks designed to address today's toughest challenges surrounding Compliance & Risk/Governance, Emerging Threats, Network Security and Data Protection.
